Remembering William Stead researched by Jackie Poole

On the 15th of April 1912 was the sinking of The Titanic ship. On-board was the spiritualist, William Thomas Stead (1849-1912) he is known as the pioneer of investigatory journalism and was the editor of the 'Northern Echo' newspaper. He described his career as, "a glorious opportunity for attacking the devil," stating that more people read the newspapers than they do the Bible.

He was one of the most discussed controversial personalities and in 1907 was a member of the 'peace movement' in Hague. he would say, "what would Christ think? He also wrote a book called, 'If Christ Came to Chicago.'

If William Stead had of survived his Atlantic crossing it was very likely that he may have won the 'Noble Peace Prize' as he was a nominee. A bust of him stands in the 'Peace Palace' in The Hague today.

There is also a bust of him in view here at the SAGB. He was known for automatic writing and had channelled a spirit who he had previously met in America called, Julia Ames. He published her messages in 'Borderland' the spiritualist quarterly in 1893 and later in 1909 in book form called, 'After Death -Letters from Julia.' In the letters, Julia who had been a journalist dictates letters to Stead and gives an account of the, 'After Life.' This book is still in circulation today.

Stead himself knew that he was going to die by drowning and he wrote the book in 1886 called, 'How the Mail Steamer Went Down in Mid Atlantic by a Survivor'. He said it is exactly what might and will take place! It gave an account of a sinking ship after hitting an iceberg and people drowning because of the lack of lifeboats.

After the sinking of the Titanic in 1912, some actual survivors had witnessed that William Stead had been calm throughout the traumatic experience and had made no attempt to save his own life and had given up his life-jacket. (He was a first-class-passenger)

Meanwhile, whilst the 'Titanic' was sailing a clairvoyant called, Pardoe Woodman was in the company of Stead's daughter, Estelle and predicted the tragedy to her. This was to be the first connection to Stead and then almost ten years later, Pardoe Woodman channelled him through automatic writing where he gave accounts of his drowning at sea and his own experience in the afterlife. Stead's daughter Estelle published the account in a book called; "The Blue Island: Experiences of a New Arrival beyond the Veil" 1921. still in circulation today)

He describes his last breath and then, 'immediately afterwards, coming to his senses' and seeing others rise vertically in the air, not knowing how far from Earth they all were. He said that Julia and the spiritual band had helped him and that It was like arriving in a new country; acclimatization is needed and there were spheres of return or stay.

"From that ill-fated ship parted company. We were free agents again, so each one of us was in the company of some personal friends who had been over here a long while."

Getting to the SAGB

Getting to the SAGB has become a lot easier for those of us north of the river. At present I have to catch the Northern Line, change to the Victoria Line to Victoria Station and then catch a train to Battersea Park Station.

As of the end of September 2021 the Northern Line is running with four trains an hour on weekends. This will mean, for me at least, that I can travel on the Northern Line from my home to Battersea Park on the same train. Thereafter it will be a short seven minute walk to the SAGB.

Now the extension Has opened there will be an initial peak of six trains per hour, increasing to 12 trains per hour During off-peak times there will be five trains per hour, doubling to 10

Helping to get to the SAGB (after all that is what counts, isn't it) it will help regenerate the Vauxhall, Nine Elms and Battersea areas by supporting new jobs, businesses and homes.

Martin Thompson SAGB Healer and Clinic Leader

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF THE SAGB

We believe in an Infinite Intelligence,
Who governs all.

We believe that personal identity and all sentient forms of life survive physical death.

We believe that continuous existence and eternal progress occur for all in the Hereafter.

We believe in communion with spiritual realms.

We believe that all humanity is spiritually linked.

We believe that in the Hereafter, all must account for their actions on earth and will judge themselves accordingly.

We believe that all are responsible for the way they conduct their earthly lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Association is to offer evidence, through mediumship, of the continuation of the personality after physical death and to relieve suffering through spiritual healing.

The Healing Hymn Gracious Spirit

Gracious Spirit, of thy goodness
Hear our anxious prayer
Take our loved ones who are suffering
'Neath thy tender care
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit may thy presence
Shed a Healing Ray
Turning all their nights of darkness
Into glorious day
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit, should'st thou claim them
Be their Light and Guide
Lead them to the heavenly kingdom
Safely by thy side
Loving father hear us, hear us
