

The Spiritualist Association of Great Britain

In remembrance and gratitude for the life of

Emma Hardinge Britten

Medium, Speaker, Author and Traveller on the 120th Anniversary of passing to higher service on 2 October 1899

Emma Hardinge Britten
(1823-1899)

On the 30th September 1894, Mrs Emma Hardinge Britten gave the opening address at the newly hired Cavendish Rooms, for the Marylebone Spiritualist Association (now the SAGB).

Mrs Emma Hardinge Britten wrote: ... two great chronicles, Modern American Spiritualism [1870] and Nineteenth Century Miracles [1884] both of which show an amazing amount of research together with a very clear and logical mind.¹

In 1887, founded the Two Worlds as a weekly spiritualist newspaper, later published monthly and in July 2018 merged with Psychic News.

¹ Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, The History of Spiritualism (first published 1926) 2014:141-142, The Spiritual Truth Press.