Talk: Sir Arthur Conan Doyle:

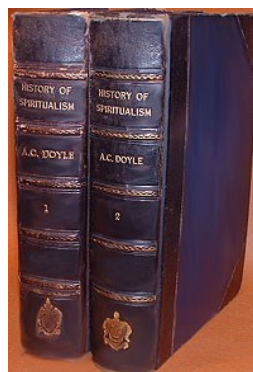

Physician, Man of Letters and a leading Proponent of Spiritualism

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle
(1859 – 1930)

Talk includes:

- Arthur Conan Doyle's childhood, education, medical studies at Edinburgh University, medical practice in Southsea and marriage to his first wife, Louise Hawkins.
- Why did the Conan Doyles name their house 'Undershaw'.
- What was the experience that Doyle said had "awakened the soul of a born wanderer".
- What microscopic book did Conan Doyle write during his extensive literary career and whose doll's house is it in?
- Who were the authors of the two books that made a significant impression on Conan Doyle's spiritual path?
- Where and when did Conan Doyle give his first public lecture on spiritualism?
- How did Conan Doyle respond when Father Herbert Thurston, criticised spiritualism and Conan Doyle in a pamphlet, 'Modern Spiritualism', stating that spiritualism 'smacked of the Antichrist'.
- Why did Conan Doyle resign from the Society for Psychical Research?
