Remembering Estelle W Stead

researched by Jackie Poole

Estelle W stead 1880 –2 September 1966 was a spiritualist and writer. She was the daughter of British journalist, activist and spiritualist William Thomas Stead who died on the Titanic in 1912. He sailed despite foreseeing and writing about the catastrophe and fate earlier in his life. And, of course we have here at the SAGB a bust in honour of her father who was a very honourable, courageous man who stuck to his principles and thanks to him society has a law in place to help protect young people from sexual exploitation, “Stead’s Law.’

Estelle wrote a book titled, ‘My Father’ ‘personal and spiritual reminiscences,’ in which she shared her father’s life story, journalism, letters and beliefs. Her father would say:

“If you don't have faith, you don’t have anything” and “what would Christ do?”

Estelle showed faith and courage continuing her father’s legacy sharing their beliefs with others that ‘there is an afterlife’.

With the help of a medium called Pardoe Woodman who had only met her father briefly and who was with her when the Titanic was sinking and had sensed this happening, he later channelled through automatic writing Stead’s account of transitioning. Estelle published this account in a book called, ‘The Blue Island: Experiences of a New Arrival beyond the veil’ 1921. Estelle writes:

“Mr Woodman also writes with his eyes closed, and often holds a handkerchief over them. Some of the best messages were given in the Twilight when it was impossible for me to follow what was being written, and yet the words were never over written. The writing. Sometimes whilst father evidently reads over what has been written, and alterations will be made, I’s dotted and T’s crossed correctly. It was a habit of my fathers, whilst here, to go back over his copy and cross his T’s and dot his I’s this habit was only known to a few, and was certainly absolutely unknown to Mr Woodman.

Father’s forward explains his object in writing this book, so there is no need to dwell on that here.

When he started, he had a rather longer book in view but decided in favour of a short book, as it is more likely to be read, can be published at a reasonable price, and so stand the chance of reaching more people, all who worked with my father here will know that such reasoning was characteristic of him.

“Now, having, I hope, given a little idea as to how these messages were obtained and our reasons for feeling that they do indeed come from my father, I am content to let the ‘Blue Island’ do the rest. I am sure it will interest many, and if it awakens some to a true realisation of what is to come, and makes them seek for further definite proofs to themselves, then the three chiefly concerned in giving these messages to the public – my father, Mr Woodman and myself – will be amply satisfied.”

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF THE SAGB

We believe in an Infinite Intelligence,
Who governs all.

We believe that personal identity and all sentient forms of life survive physical death.

We believe that continuous existence and eternal progress occur for all in the Hereafter.

We believe in communion with spiritual realms.

We believe that all humanity is spiritually linked.

We believe that in the Hereafter, all must account for their actions on earth and will judge themselves accordingly.

We believe that all are responsible for the way they conduct their earthly lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Association is to offer evidence, through mediumship, of the continuation of the personality after physical death and to relieve suffering through spiritual healing.

The Healing Hymn Gracious Spirit

Gracious Spirit, of thy goodness
Hear our anxious prayer
Take our loved ones who are suffering
'Neath thy tender care
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit may thy presence
Shed a Healing Ray
Turning all their nights of darkness
Into glorious day
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit, should'st thou claim them
Be their Light and Guide
Lead them to the heavenly kingdom
Safely by thy side
Loving father hear us, hear us

SAGB

Getting to the SAGB

Getting to the SAGB has become a lot easier for those of us north of the river. At present I have to catch the Northern Line, change to the Victoria Line to Victoria Station and then catch a train to Battersea Park Station.

As of the end of September 2021 the Northern Line is running with four trains an hour on week-ends. This will mean, for me at least, that I can travel on the Northern Line from my home to Battersea Park on the same train. Thereafter it will be a short seven minute walk to the SAGB.

Now the extension Has opened there will be an initial peak of six trains per hour, increasing to 12 trains per hour During off-peak times there will be five trains per hour, doubling to 10

Helping to get to the SAGB (after all that is what counts, isn't it) it will help regenerate the Vauxhall, Nine Elms and Battersea areas by supporting new jobs, businesses and homes.
