Profile Irene Upton

My name is Irene Upton and I am a Spiritual Artist and Medium. I became aware of spirit as a young child. They were the ones that consoled me when I was afraid of the dark. My grandmother taught me how to read the playing cards as a teenager, but it wasn't until my early 20's that I began learn about and tarot and oracle cards.

It was another 20 years that passed before those in the Spirit World got my attention and inspired me to attend a local spiritualist church. It was from there that I quickly started to develop my mediumship and embark on my spirit art journey.

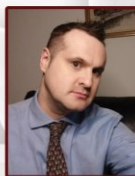

So after many years of study and practice I can give evidential sittings to prove the survival of an individual once they have passed to Spirit and draw their likeness in the form of a portrait.

I am passionate about art and creativity. Spirit influence my work especially when working on Auragraphs and other Psychic Art. I love to inspire others and one way I do this is by running and hosting workshops on Spirit Art.

I have been lucky enough to study at the world renowned Arthur Findlay College, (The Worlds Foremost College for the Advancement of Spiritualism and Psychic Sciences) and have been taught by some of the best tutors in the fields of mediumship and spirit art.

‘Remembering Mrs Mary-Ann Everitt’ researched by Jackie Poole

Mary Ann Everitt known as Mrs Thomas Everitt 1825 – September 1915, was a prominent British Spiritualist who began seances in 1855 privately, but became more known to the public in 1867.

Mary Ann married Thomas Everitt, originally a tailor by trade, in 1848, the same year as the start of ‘modern spiritualism’ and they had 7 children in 12 years from 1849–1861. In 1898 they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with their family and friends.

Mrs Everitt was known as a private medium and she never charged for her work. Mr Everitt gave well prepared lectures about spiritualism, giving first-hand accounts of what they had experienced during the seances.

She was the first medium to produce direct voices in England, they were named as John Watts and Zippy, a South Sea Islander. She also produced automatic writing, raps and psychic-light. The earliest record of Zippy was at a seance with Agnes Guppy-Volckman, when Mary Ann was thrown into trance for the first time.

Many descriptions of Mary Ann Everitt's phenomena were published in Morell Theobalds, ‘Spirit Workers’ in the home circle in 1887. The book describes how Mary Ann on returning to consciousness, frequently told what she had seen in the Spirit World, that cool breezes and scents were frequent phenomena, and that she had considerable powers of psychometry.

Theobald compared the sounds that accompanied her direct writing phenomena to a quickly working electric needle. In close and legible letters, he had seen 500 or more words produced in 5 or 6 seconds.

E. Dawson Rogers, who was an English journalist and Spiritualist in a letter to E.T. Bennett, stated:

"The most completely proven cases of direct writing of which I know are those of Mrs Everitt. As to many of them I can personally testify their genuineness is beyond dispute. My first seance with Mrs Everitt was on May 3, 1870. I thought I would ask a question which Mrs Everitt herself could not possibly answer. John Watts spoke, and promised to give us some direct writing and I thereupon said, ‘please give us a definition of the distinction between the ‘Will and the Understanding’.’

Paper and pencil had been placed on the table and in 8 seconds or perhaps 10, and lighting up, we found a direct and intelligent answer to the question, containing over 150 words, its phrasing was peculiar.

I afterwards found it was an extract from one of Swedenborg's writings, with a few slight alterations, and an extract such as it would be extremely difficult for anyone to carry in his memory, certainly Mrs Everitt could never do it. One of Mrs Everitt's Spirit Attendants is said to be a gentleman who had been a distinguished Swedenborg minister. " drive a special bus helping the disabled.

He developed as a medium and a healer; one of his clients that he recalls was, 'Mrs O' Brien' She had been fortold that a new healer was going to heal her condition. He was informed later by her of this and also that a blood There were many other witnesses and testimonies given authenticating Mary Ann's Trance Mediumship, for example, several other pieces of direct writing proved to be quotations from books, sometimes from ancient ones. Once, in the presence of Sir William Crookes and Edward William Cox, an extract written in Latin was given and later found in a book by a poet named, 'Gellius' who had lived in the reign of 'Adrian' in the second century.

Writing in 'Light' magazine July 7, 1894, Mr Everitt described a cold wind and strange sounds that preceded the approach of the influence at his wife's seances and he stated:

"Then the paper and pencil are whisked up into the air, a rapid tick- tick- ticking sound, lasting barely a few seconds, paper and pencil fall to the table, and the light is called for. The writing is done.

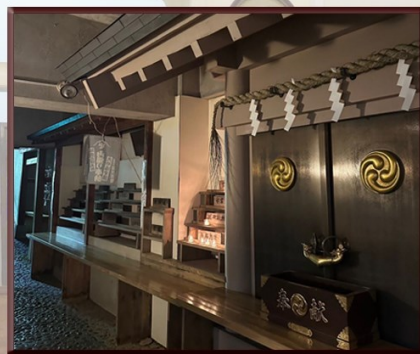

The speed of production varies from 100 to 150 words a second. The exceeding minuteness of the writing is striking also the closeness together of the words and the lines."

Mary Ann and her husband Thomas Everitt had both supported 'The Spiritualist Association of Great Britain' previously known as The Marylebone Association (MSA) where he was made president in 1890. It is with gratitude that they both started to work for us in 1890, when there was a lack of active workers and only about 30 members. Mr Everitt was a tireless worker attending all meetings, carrying out his duties to the full, as well as leading many seances with Mrs Everitt for the MSA.

Through Mary Ann Everitt's (Mrs Thomas Everitt) remarkable mediumship, many newcomers to Spiritualism became convinced of the afterlife, and became members and supporters of the MSA.

Getting to the SAGB

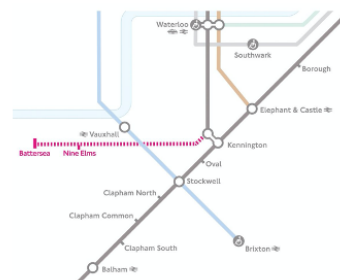

Getting to the SAGB has become a lot easier for those of us north of the river. At present I have to catch the Northern Line, change to the Victoria Line to Victoria Station and then catch a train to Battersea Park Station.

As of the end of September 2021 the Northern Line is running with four trains an hour on week-ends. This will mean, for me at least, that I can travel on the Northern Line from my home to Battersea Park on the same train. Thereafter it will be a short seven minute walk to the SAGB.

Now the extension Has opened there will be an initial peak of six trains per hour, increasing to 12 trains per hour During off-peak times there will be five trains per hour, doubling to 10

Helping to get to the SAGB (after all that is what counts, isn't it) it will help regenerate the Vauxhall, Nine Elms and Battersea areas by supporting new jobs, businesses and homes.

Martin Thompson SAGB Healer and Clinic Leader

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF THE SAGB

We believe in an Infinite Intelligence,
Who governs all.

We believe that personal identity and all sentient forms of life survive physical death.

We believe that continuous existence and eternal progress occur for all in the Hereafter.

We believe in communion with spiritual realms.

We believe that all humanity is spiritually linked.

We believe that in the Hereafter, all must account for their actions on earth and will judge themselves accordingly.

We believe that all are responsible for the way they conduct their earthly lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Association is to offer evidence, through mediumship, of the continuation of the personality after physical death and to relieve suffering through spiritual healing.

Profile Claire Edwards

Claire has been working with her mediumship for 20 years, having been aware of the Spirit world since she was a child.

Following the passing of her Grandfather, Claire went back to the Spiritualist church she had been to as a teenager, where she was invited to join the circle.

In 2006 Claire went on the first of a number of courses to study mediumship and Spiritualism at various colleges and centres throughout the UK.

Claire has been a professional medium since 2008, running her own circles and workshops, teaching others how to discover and develop their own mediumistic abilities.

Claire has written for various publications, having had her own column in The Psychic World Newspaper.

Working closely with her Spirit Guides, Claire is able to kindly and sensitively pass on messages from the Spirit world to help share the eternal love from family and friends passed before us.

The Healing Hymn Gracious Spirit

Gracious Spirit, of thy goodness
Hear our anxious prayer
Take our loved ones who are suffering
'Neath thy tender care
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit may thy presence
Shed a Healing Ray
Turning all their nights of darkness
Into glorious day
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit, should'st thou claim them
Be their Light and Guide
Lead them to the heavenly kingdom
Safely by thy side
Loving father hear us, hear us
