Building and holding our energy is key within attunement. We raise our energy to be 'in the power'. For mediumship we sense the energy of our communicator.

In Mediumship and Healing, the blend of energy creates the necessary link held then between our contact and recipient and with us as healer with our patient. When chairing we need to be aware of this dynamic process too.

Are you developing your mediumship, working as a healer or chairing for a service or demonstration then this circle is for you to refine and build this energy to your full potential. Understanding how energy works and its importance for us as individuals working with The World of Spirit, will build your confidence and elevate your service to Spirit.

Join me at the SAGB for this Circle: Understanding Energy.

Remembering W.T Parish

researched by Jackie Poole

William Parish; 1873 - 1945 was regarded as the best healing medium of his day. He discovered his capabilities to be a channel for healing from spirit when he was approximately around 55 years-old, which was regarded as later in life. However, he then chose to dedicate his life to his healing work. He worked seven days a week giving freely as he did not charge for his healings.

He is described as a very humble man who never sought publicity and he never advertised his services. His fame was created by word-of-mouth cures, based on the amazing results from his healing. People often sought healing from him and were cured after their doctor's labelled them as, 'a terminal illness'. Parish had been unaware of his healing ability. He had been working for the 'railroad company' and was away from home for weeks at a time.

The beginning of his Spiritualist healing work began when his wife Peggy had been diagnosed with cancer and was given only six months to live. Someone suggested to her that she seek healing from a spiritualist. Parish was against this idea. Nevertheless, Peggy wanted to go and eventually he accompanied her to a spiritualist service. Maurice Barbanell the then editor of Psychic News wrote in his book titled 'Parish The Healer' 1938:

"During the demonstration of spiritualism he realized that spiritualism did not make the emotional appeal to the unintelligent as he had originally thought. And during a service the medium told Parish that he was a natural born healer and that he could and would heal his wife, Peggy."

"Suddenly his curiosity became ignited and he furiously began reading all of the mediumistic literature he could find. With his newly gained knowledge, he prayed for guidance. Then one night he became aware of an unseen influence and he felt Spirit guidance and he began the laying his hands on Peggy. He did as guided and when he was away from home at work, on those days he did absent distance healing. Nine months later Peggy was healed."

Spirit told Parish that he should continue his healing work with other people suffering with health problems. Meanwhile, word of Peggy's cure spread rapidly because the doctors had given her so little hope of survival. People started to come to their home to receive healing and they decided to convert the best room of their home into a healing sanctuary. He became so busy with healing that he made the important decision to take early retirement from his railroad job in order to dedicate his life to heal the sick. He never asked the patients for any medical history because he realized it was spirit who did the healing and they did not need to be told where to direct the healing energy.

He received 15,000 letters a year requesting help. And also, he received thousands of letters of gratitude that were seen by the Fleet Street journalist, Mr Paul Miller who also visited and interviewed Parish. The letters came from all over the world stating what would have been regarded as miracles. And there are many of these letters published with permission from the senders including their addresses at the time in 1938.

Parish also developed additional spiritual gifts and he became clairvoyant and he saw the spirit doctors who worked through him. He had two main spirit doctors. The first was known as 'Brother William' later Parish had learned that 'Brother William' was a former president of the 'Royal Ophthalmic Hospital'. The second spirit doctor was Abdul Latif who was a Persian spirit healer. There was documentation that Abdul Latif was a physician who lived in the same timeframe as king Richard Ist circa 1189. It was interesting that Abdul Latif used current medical knowledge and techniques which suggested that he had continued studying medicine in the spirit world, including osteopathy and homeopathy. In an interview with Maurice Barbanell; Parish was asked the question: "What is your own attitude towards spiritual healing?" He responded:

"I believe I am fulfilling the laws of God. I am fulfilling that which God has chosen for me to be a blessing to his children of this earth. I work for the alleviation of suffering for mankind not only for their bodies but also for healing their souls by bringing light, understanding, happiness and hope. I don't want people to come to me when a doctor can heal them. But when they say 'I don't want a doctor, I would rather come to you'. Then I am delighted to be of service. I have no animosity towards doctors and surgeons. All I try to do is to follow the one great healer, 'Jesus the Nazarene'. I know there have been other spiritual masters and I commune with them. I am a follower of the Nazarene because I know that I am allied with him. There is nothing on earth that would deter me from going on with my healing, even if the whole world were against me".

Maurice Barbanell Also asked Parish the question: "Do you think that other people could do spiritual healing?" Parish answered by quoting the text from the Bible: "Many are called but few are chosen."" I have had a wide experience of humanity. I have travelled most of the earth. I have met all sorts and conditions of people. I have mingled with persons of rank and society and I have rubbed shoulders with the dregs of humanity. I have had happiness and I have endured bitter sorrow. Now I look back and realize that all this was part of the preparation for the work that I am doing now. There are few individuals on the face of this earth who are prepared to leave all and follow Him. I am doing it. I have had to make every sacrifice but it is not a sacrifice now. It is a privilege."

"If every church could have a healing sanctuary, what great work could be accomplished. It was through healing that Jesus attracted the attention of the multitude. And if his followers could heal today, they would fill the Nazarene's soul with joy and gladness instead of remorse and sorrow as I am sure it is now, but Creed and dogma are the stumbling blocks. That is true, unfortunately in all of the churches. A dear soul, a Roman Catholic wrote to me the other day and told me I was a heretic! I prayed that the light might come to him!"

"I perform the absent healing every morning between seven and 8 o'clock and every night between 10 and 11 o'clock, will you please send up your prayers for a portion of these times so that our prayers are linked up? Let us be patient and faithful and also try to make ourselves worthy of God's blessings through service onto others even if it is only in sending out kind thoughts for suffers who are in greater pain then ourselves. "Maurice Barbanell published the healing sanctuary's address which was in East Sheen, London SW14. and urged those in need of healing to write to W. T Parish and not to forget to include an S.A.E because he always writes back.

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF THE SAGB

We believe in an Infinite Intelligence,
Who governs all.

We believe that personal identity and all sentient forms of life survive physical death.

We believe that continuous existence and eternal progress occur for all in the Hereafter.

We believe in communion with spiritual realms.

We believe that all humanity is spiritually linked.

We believe that in the Hereafter, all must account for their actions on earth and will judge themselves accordingly.

We believe that all are responsible for the way they conduct their earthly lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Association is to offer evidence, through mediumship, of the continuation of the personality after physical death and to relieve suffering through spiritual healing.

The Healing Hymn Gracious Spirit

Gracious Spirit, of thy goodness
Hear our anxious prayer
Take our loved ones who are suffering
'Neath thy tender care
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit may thy presence
Shed a Healing Ray
Turning all their nights of darkness
Into glorious day
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit, should'st thou claim them
Be their Light and Guide
Lead them to the heavenly kingdom
Safely by thy side
Loving father hear us, hear us

Getting to the SAGB

Getting to the SAGB has become a lot easier for those of us north of the river. At present I have to catch the Northern Line, change to the Victoria Line to Victoria Station and then catch a train to Battersea Park Station.

As of the end of September 2021 the Northern Line is running with four trains an hour on week-ends. This will mean, for me at least, that I can travel on the Northern Line from my home to Battersea Park on the same train. Thereafter it will be a short seven minute walk to the SAGB.

Now the extension Has opened there will be an initial peak of six trains per hour, increasing to 12 trains per hour During off-peak times there will be five trains per hour, doubling to 10

Helping to get to the SAGB (after all that is what counts, isn't it) it will help regenerate the Vauxhall, Nine Elms and Battersea areas by supporting new jobs, businesses and homes.
