Remembering Bertha Harris

researched by Jackie Poole

Bertha Harris, formerly Hughes was born in Chester, England around the turn of the 20th century. (1900 – 1981) It is known that as a child she experienced her first spirit contacts and had reported seeing auras as in 'nice lights around people' and later, when she was 17 years- old, she saw the spirit of her younger brother Cyril who had passed over. She had claimed that he had appeared to her, and so, not everyone around her believing this; she attended a Spiritualist meeting to find out what was happening to her, and furthermore, to be in a more accepting community. As a result of her pathway, she continued to develop mediumship and sat in spiritualist circles. And six years later in 1923:

She was invited by Ernest W Oaten to Manchester to demonstrate mediumship. Ernest W Oaten was a prominent British Spiritualist and the president of the International Federation of Spiritualists and he also edited the spiritualist journal 'Two Worlds'. He was also a medium and believed that his leading articles were inspired by the spirit of Emma Hardinge Britten.

So, in 1923, It was Bertha's first-time leaving Chester and Ernest Oaten, assisted her on her stage- presence, after which her demonstration led to numerous bookings across northern England. She then also toured with Sir Arthur Conan Doyle on extensive spiritualist campaigns under the watchful guidance of the physicist Sir Oliver Lodge. She became known for her in depth seances given while they travelled across Great Britain and when Sir Arthur Doyle passed to spirit seven years later in 1930, Bertha reported on his visits to her from Spirit.

In 1940 Bertha moved to London. It is said that a number of important people sought her advice such as King George of Greece, and Charles deGaulle and also rumoured; Sir Winston Churchill (This information was taken from Encyclopedia.com.)

At a time when mediumship was still illegal in England, Bertha did not hesitate to defend her friend, Helen Duncan who was imprisoned for 9 months under an act made in 1735 (Witchcraft Act) for practicing her spiritual/religious - beliefs. Bertha spent hours lobbying outside the 'Houses of Parliament' trying to get an amendment passed to correct the situation. Spiritualists were still being prosecuted under the Witchcraft Act (1735) and also the Vagrancy Act (1824). The Spiritualist Helen Duncan was the last person to be imprisoned under this act in 1944. Bertha Harris earned her nick name of 'battling Bertha' due to her readiness to defend any attack made on her convictions.

Also, I might add that Winston Churchill was deeply irritated by the trial of Helen Duncan; after the conviction at The Old Bailey in 1944, he wrote an official strong worded memo to the Home Secretary Herbert Morrison. He was demanding an explanation as to why an ancient law was being dug up during wartime? (state cost and obsolete tomfoolery) His disdain contributed to the eventual repeal of the ancient Act later in 1951.

In 1949 Bertha became an ordained minister with the 'Spiritualists' National Union' and in 1953 was honored by her colleagues with an invitation to demonstrate her mediumship for the annual gatherings of the SAGB when known as the MSA, at 'The Royal Albert Hall' who held annual gatherings there and selling out every seat to the public who had come to see many of the SAGB's Mediums' public platform demonstrations. There are many articles and posters made from this time. (and back to Bertha)

I found an article on the SAGB website regarding Bertha Harris that was published in 'Psychic News'. In short, it said that during her Sunday evening demonstration at the MSA - SAGB " Bertha Harris had given evidence of survival from spirit to a woman and the message ended with the fact that the woman had been in a muddle over money! Bertha told the lady that there was a gentleman in Spirit putting a 'dunces' hat on her head', (archaic vernacular) the woman replied, "I know I'm hopeless with money!"- and then Bertha gave her reassurance that the spirit is saying that he'll help 'you' to sort it out". The headline in Psychic News read:

"Spirit Pushed Dunce's Cap on her Head".

Now, isn't it quite reassuring that the spirit world is aware of what difficulties we might be facing and may guide us towards a solution? And may have a sense of humour Aswell.

Helen Duncan's living relatives are still fighting for her to be pardoned.

With George Lawson

Join me this Sunday 20th September 2026

at 1pm for two hours at

The spiritual Association of Great Britain in Battersea

2 hours of joy and positive energy. Questioning your existence and why and what purpose it has. Step away from the unreal for a couple of hours and enjoy the company of other curious souls and begin to discover true self and purpose. Open your heart and mind to existence, consciousness and Bliss.

Awareness determined by knowledge. Darkness replaced by Light. Mortality erased by immortality. Consciousness illuminating all objects revealing truth. We do not need to be anywhere yesterday or somewhere tomorrow.

We only need to be Now. Time and space have no value to true self. What a beautiful experience life itself is. A small time out from immortality. A small period of time , fullness of just experiences.

Designed for you to discover Truth. Break the chains of life dictating the terms of your existence in the physical world .

And realise the freedom of oneness and the joy of knowing our purpose .

Be Happy

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF THE SAGB

We believe in an Infinite Intelligence,
Who governs all.

We believe that personal identity and all sentient forms of life survive physical death.

We believe that continuous existence and eternal progress occur for all in the Hereafter.

We believe in communion with spiritual realms.

We believe that all humanity is spiritually linked.

We believe that in the Hereafter, all must account for their actions on earth and will judge themselves accordingly.

We believe that all are responsible for the way they conduct their earthly lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Association is to offer evidence, through mediumship, of the continuation of the personality after physical death and to relieve suffering through spiritual healing.

The Healing Hymn Gracious Spirit

Gracious Spirit, of thy goodness
Hear our anxious prayer
Take our loved ones who are suffering
'Neath thy tender care
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit may thy presence
Shed a Healing Ray
Turning all their nights of darkness
Into glorious day
Loving Father hear us, hear us

Gracious Spirit, should'st thou claim them
Be their Light and Guide
Lead them to the heavenly kingdom
Safely by thy side
Loving father hear us, hear us

Getting to the SAGB

Getting to the SAGB has become a lot easier for those of us north of the river. At present I have to catch the Northern Line, change to the Victoria Line to Victoria Station and then catch a train to Battersea Park Station.

As of the end of September 2021 the Northern Line is running with four trains an hour on week-ends. This will mean, for me at least, that I can travel on the Northern Line from my home to Battersea Park on the same train. Thereafter it will be a short seven minute walk to the SAGB.

Now the extension Has opened there will be an initial peak of six trains per hour, increasing to 12 trains per hour During off-peak times there will be five trains per hour, doubling to 10

Helping to get to the SAGB (after all that is what counts, isn't it) it will help regenerate the Vauxhall, Nine Elms and Battersea areas by supporting new jobs, businesses and homes.
